

BOOMING EASTERN BERGEN.

Officials of Fourteen New Jersey Communities Organize.

Mayors, Councilmen, Freeholders and other prominent citizens representing fourteen communities in New Jersey will meet at the Public School in Palisade tomorrow night and permanently organize the Eastern Bergen County Protective Association. This is believed to be the first organization of elected officials of Bergen County to promote the interests of their communities.

The first work of the new organization will be to urge a bridge across the Hudson, a three-cent fare at the Edgewater ferry, uniform water rates, free transfers at the Palisade Junction and a five-cent trolley fare from Weehawken to Coeymansville. The officials in the organization represent a population of 50,000, who own properties assessed at more than $7,000,000 and who pay one-third of the taxes in Bergen County.

SLAYER OF POLICEMAN GETS 10 TO 19 YEARS AND FEELS JUBILANT

Fully Expected to Get the Chair, Says Gorgoni, Who Killed McNierney.

Frank Gorgoni, the young Italian shoemaker who stabbed and killed Police-Sergeant Joseph McNierney on the Twenty-third street station of the Third Avenue elevated railroad on Sept. 27, was sentenced today to Sing Sing Prison by Judge Rosalesky in General Sessions to not less than ten years and not more than nineteen years and six months. Gorgoni was indicted for murder in the first degree, but was convicted only of manslaughter in the first degree.

Since his conviction Gorgoni has changed greatly in appearance. When arraigned for trial he was in subject terror, refusing to sit in the witness chair under the belief that it was the electric chair and he would be killed. When the jury returned its verdict of manslaughter in the first degree he grasped the hand of each juror and embraced his counsel.

Clad in a new blue suit and wearing a red tie he stood defiantly at the bar today. A smile covered his face as he listened to his sentence.

"I fully expected to be convicted of murder and sent to the electric chair," he told one of the court attendants as he was led away. "I can do this sentence easy and still be young when I get out."

The killing of McNierney was due to a dispute he and Patrolman Dineen had with Gorgoni and another Italian on an "L" train. The two Italians annoyed a girl and the policeman went to the assistance of the young woman, who complained to them. Neither of the policemen were in uniform and as the Italians left the train at Twenty-third street Gorgoni invited the policeman to have it out on the platform.

There Gorgoni drew a stiletto and stabbed McNierney in the abdomen. McNierney died in the hospital six days later. Dineen was also stabbed, but recovered.

Coldest Since 1908 Up the State. (Special to The Evening World.) WHITEHALL, N. Y., Jan. 14.—Washington County is experiencing the coldest weather since 1906. Thirty-seven below zero was the record this morning. The intense cold has practically tied up outdoor operations and railway traffic is badly crippled.

Poster Signs Up With Washington. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Eddie Foster, third baseman of the Washington American League Baseball Club, has just signed a two-year contract with the local team. It had been rumored that he would join the Federal League. It is understood that Foster will receive an increase in salary.

Have your way— it's your money

When the just-as-good clerk attempts to slip over his unknown tooth paste on you, try this. Say to him: "This money is not real coin-of-the-realm, but it's 'just-as-good.'"

See the point? Be sure you get the only "acid-mouth" dentifrice—Pebeco Tooth Paste. Nothing else will do the great work of neutralizing "acid-mouth"—the great tooth destroyer.

Pebeco Tooth Paste

is a triumph in tooth-saving. It saves the outside enamel—this is why Pebeco saves your teeth. The extra-large tube lasts twice as long. Besides, Pebeco does all that ordinary dentifrices do—cleans—whitens—polishes; and does all these things beautifully.
